ADVISORY

READ BEFORE USING YOUR NES/SUPER NES

A very small portion of the population may experience epileptic seizures when viewing certain kinds of flashing lights or patterns that are commonly present in our daily environment. These persons may experience seizures while watching some kinds of television pictures or playing certain video games. Players who have not had any previous seizures may nonetheless have an undetected epileptic condition. We suggest that you consult your physician if you have an epileptic condition or if you experience any of the following symptoms while playing video games: altered vision, muscle twitching, other involuntary movements, loss of awareness of your surroundings, mental confusion and/or convulsions.

⚠ WARNING ⚠

DO NOT USE WITH FRONT OR REAR PROJECTION TV-

Do not use a front or rear projection television with your Nintendo Entertainment System™ (NES) and NES games. Your projection television screen may be permanently damaged if video games with stationary scenes or patterns are played on your projection television. Similar damage may occur if you place a video game on hold or pause. If you use your projection television with NES games, Nintendo will not be liable for any damage. This situation is not caused by a defect in the NES or NES games; other fixed or repetitive images may cause similar damage to a projection television. Please contact your TV manufacturer for further information.

1. TECMO SUPER BOWL

Tecmo Super Bowl is a football game that simulates real NFL action. Players can experience an entire season — from summer preseason games to the final Pro Bowl game. All 28 NFL teams are included in this game. Each team is made up of 30 players and each player is based upon data taken from the actual football players from the 90/91 NFL season. Enjoy the excitement of football to your heart's content.

* THE PLAYERS AND STATISTICS IN TECMO SUPER BOWL HAVE BEEN PICKED FROM ACTUAL NFC AND AFC TEAM ROSTERS. UNFORTUNATELY DUE TO PROGRAMMING AND OTHER LIMITATIONS WE COULD NOT INCLUDE ALL PLAYERS FROM ALL TEAMS. WE HAVE ENDEAVORED, HOWEVER, TO CREATE THE MOST AUTHENTIC FOOTBALL GAME POSSIBLE. IF PER CHANCE WE HAVE MISSED ONE OF YOUR FAVORITE PLAYERS PLEASE ACCEPT OUR APOLOGY.

Ⓢ Convenient Power-off Memory Function

This game cartridge is equipped with a back-up battery that enables you to save the results of games played. In order to make sure that the data you have saved isn't lost, always press the reset button while turning the power off. Be careful not to remove the cartridge while the power is on and do not turn the power switch on and off in rapid succession. Doing either of these things may cause damage to the data and scores saved by the back-up battery. (To reset the Memory — see page 21)

2. Operation of the Control

Pressing any button during the demo screen action will cause the title screen to appear. Pressing the start button will cause the Main Menu screen to appear. Move the + Control Pad up and down to make your choices from among the four main menus: preseason game, regular season game, pro bowl, and team data. For details concerning the menus, refer to the corresponding sections which follow.

3. Tecmo Super Bowl – Three Game Modes

#1 – Preseason Game

To play a preseason game, begin by choosing “Preseason game” then choose two teams from among the 28 NFL teams listed.

* Data from preseason games is not saved.

If you choose “Preseason” from the main menu, the Team Control Window will appear.

☆ Use this window to determine the mode for your game (see the Team Control page for more details – Page 15).

◆ Team Control Window

☆ Once you have selected your game mode, the Team Select screen will appear.

◆ Team Select Screen

☆ Choose your team and your opponent's team.

☆ Once you have chosen the two teams, the game will begin.

* You can change a team's starting roster before the game begins (see the Team Data page for more details – Page 8).

#2 – Regular Season Game

Each team plays one regular season game every week during the 17 week season. The teams with the best season records then compete in the playoffs to decide the two Super Bowl contestants. These two teams then play in the Super Bowl to decide which is the world champion. Records for each team and player are kept in the cartridge's memory throughout the entire season.

☆ Choose “Season” from the main menu and the options window will appear. While this screen is on you can confirm the game data and change the game settings. Then choose “Game Start” to begin the game (See the Regular Season Game Data section for more details – page 16).

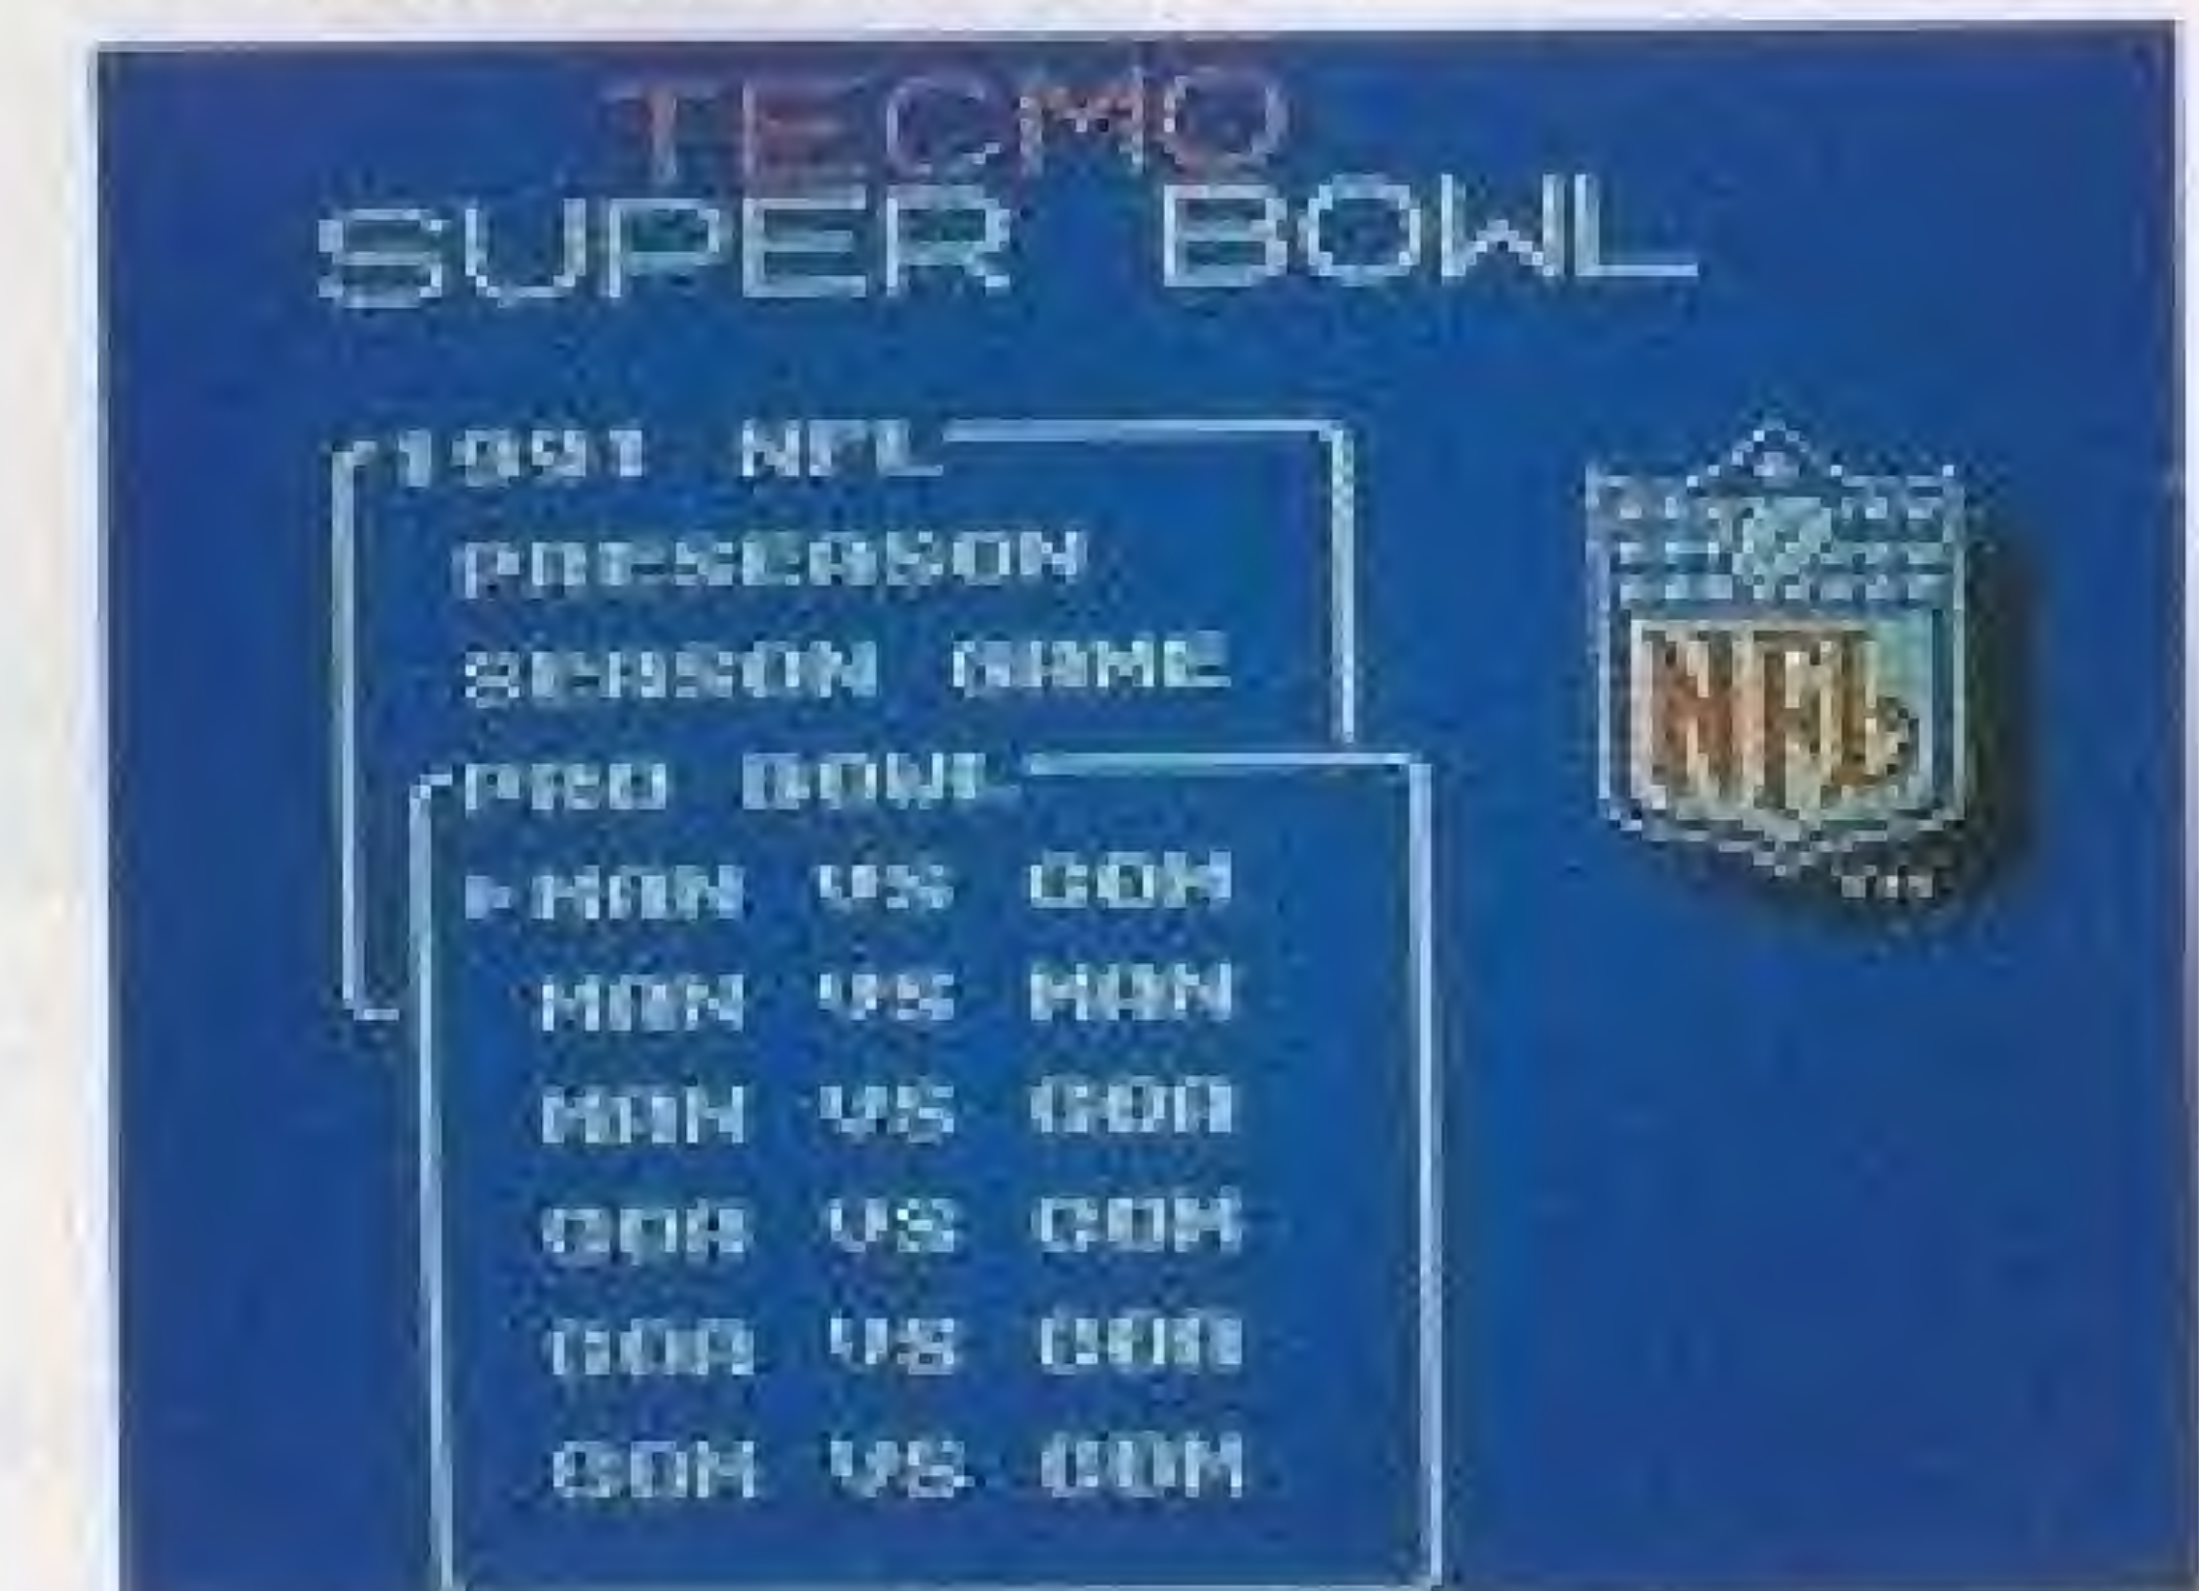

◆ Options Window

#3 – Pro Bowl Game

The Pro Bowl game is an all-star match-up between the best players in the AFC and NFC. The starting line-ups of the two all-star teams can be changed by using the Team Data mode (see page 8~15).

◆ Team Control Window

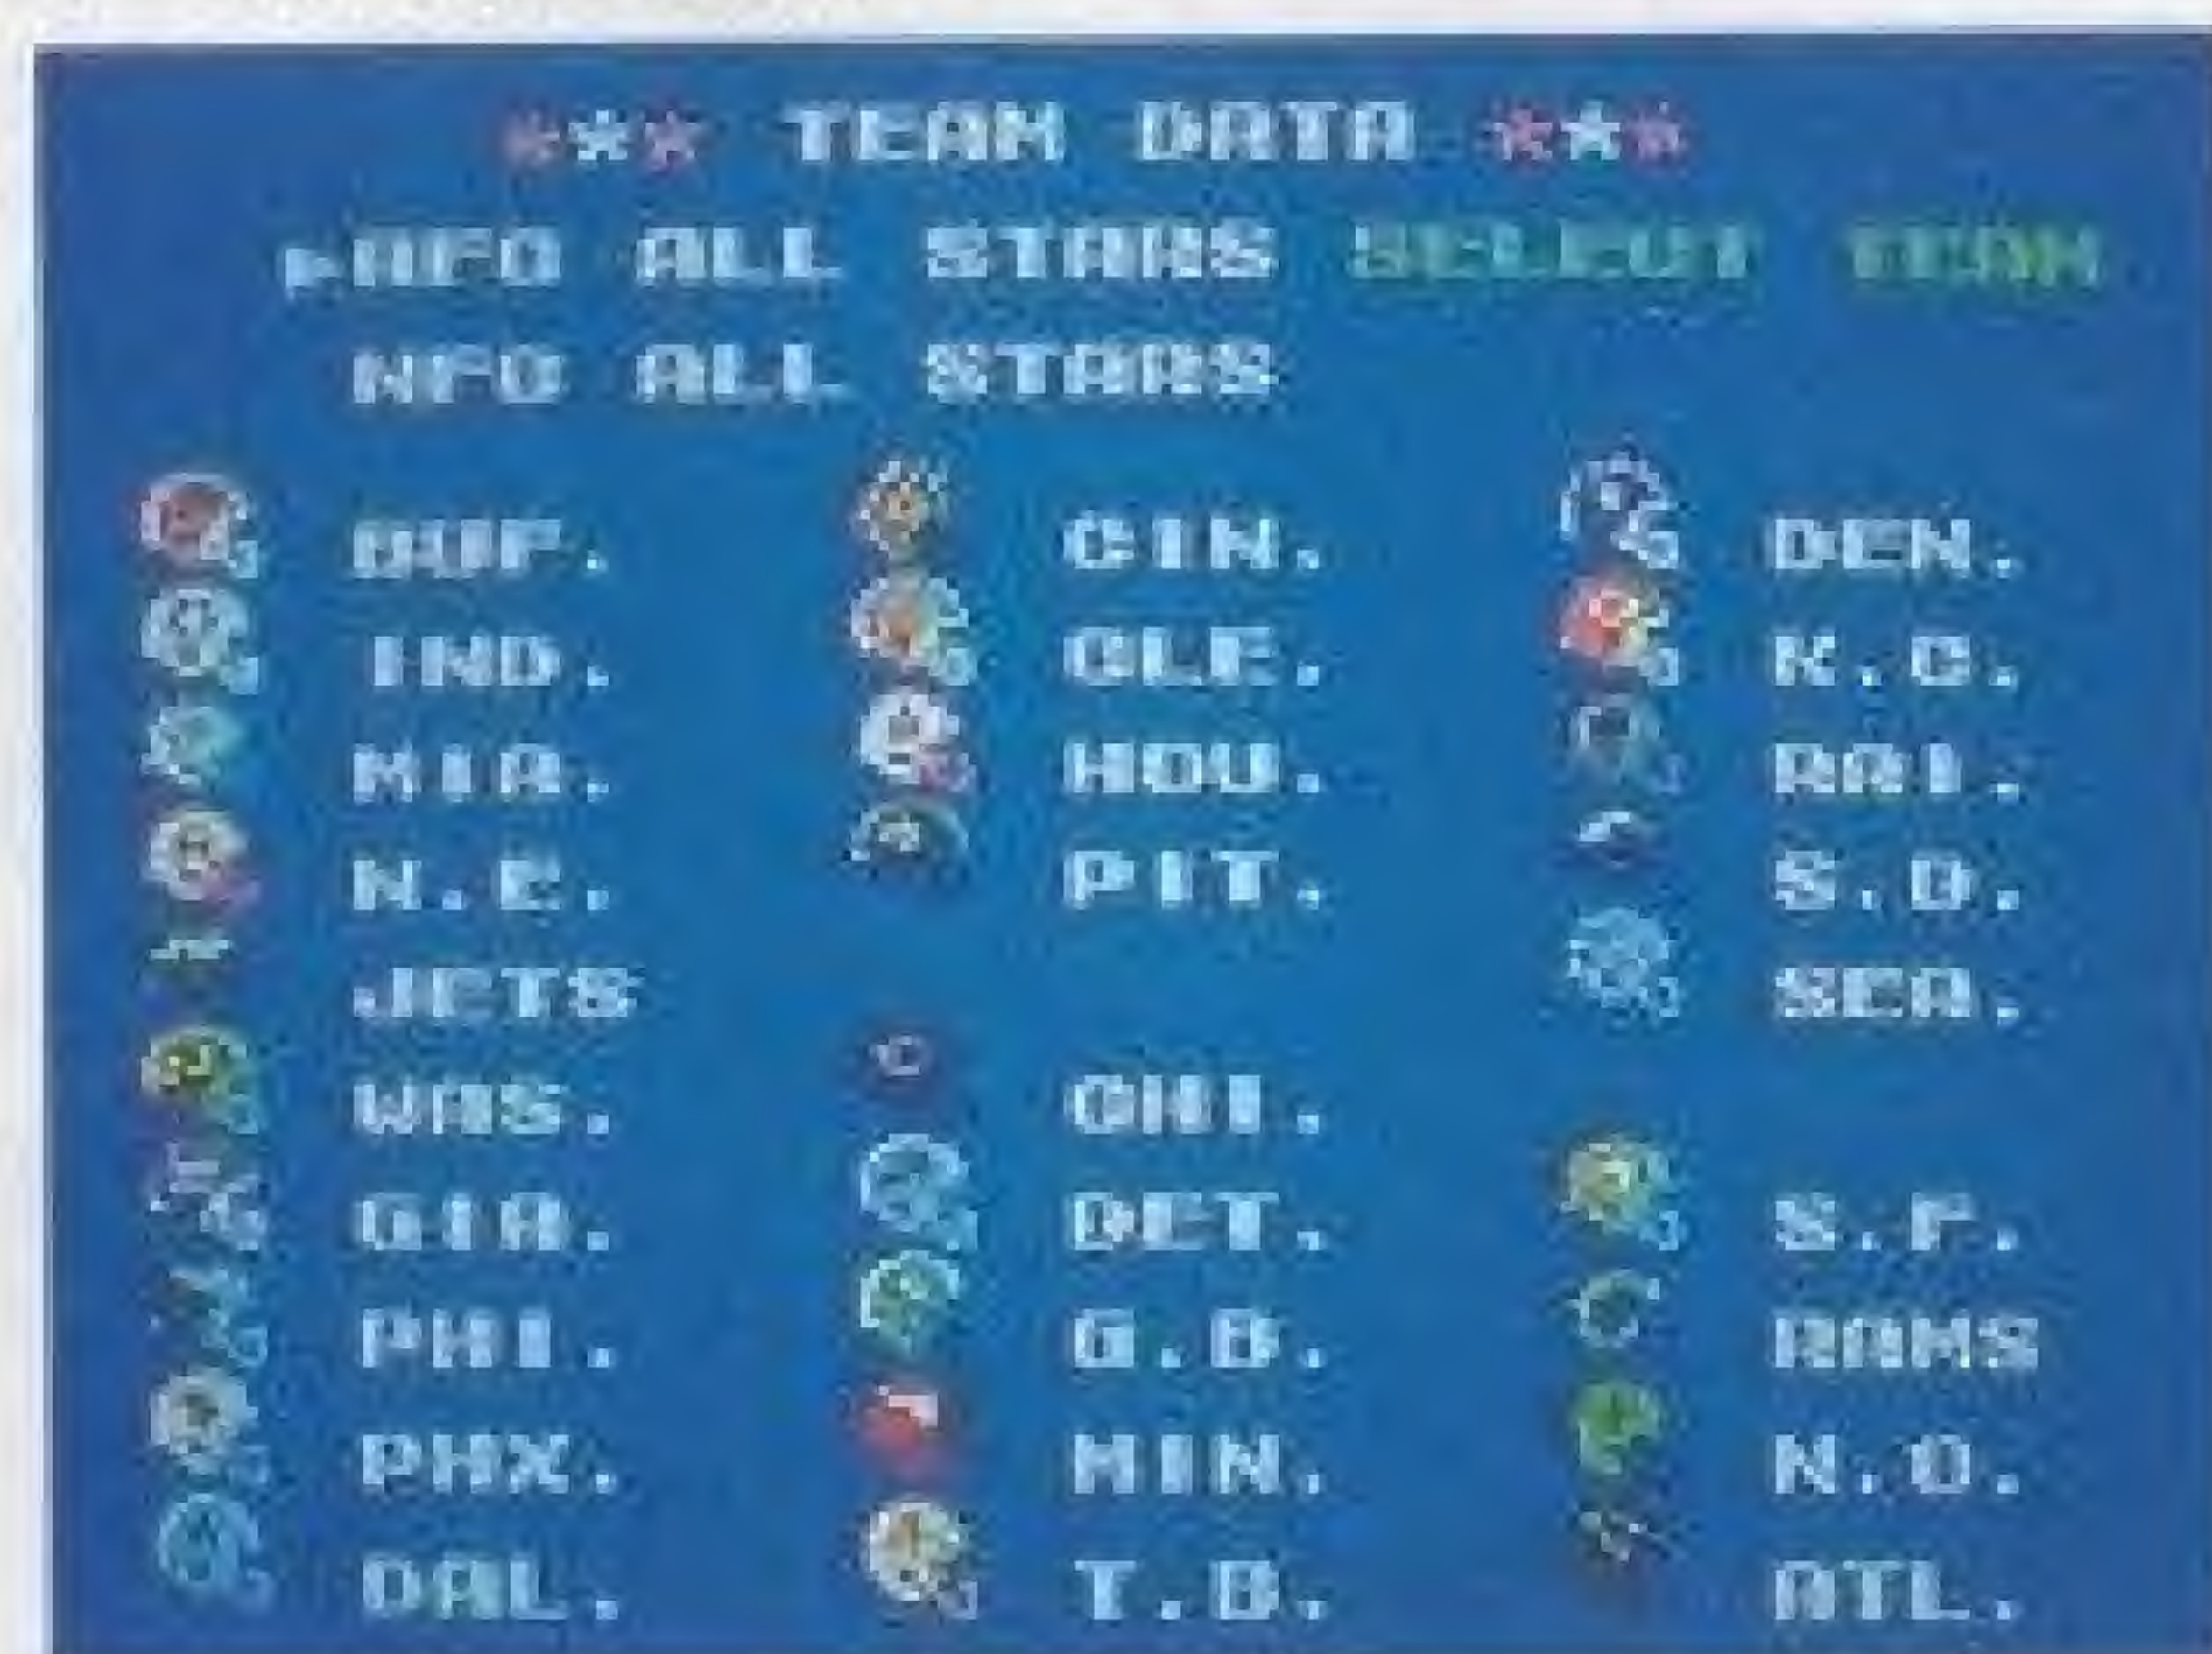

Choose “Pro Bowl” from the main menu and the Team Control Window will appear. After setting the game mode, choose either the AFC or NFC and the game will begin. (see page 15)

© Team Data

When you want to look up team's or players data, or when you want to change the starting line-up choose the team from the list and then press the A button. Data for the team that you have chosen will then appear on the screen. (Refer to page 14 for information concerning the All-Star Team Data Screen.)

Ⓞ Reset command

What do you do when you want to start a regular season all over again? Press the A button during the NFL schedule screen and a window will appear with commands for seeing the play-off schedule and a reset command. (Press the B button to return to the NFL schedule screen.) Choose the reset command and press the A button and a photo question window will appear. Be careful because if you choose "Yes" here all of the information in the cartridge memory will be erased.

◆ "Question window"

If you are continue your Regular Season Game (s) to the Play-off level, the Play-off Schedule and graph will appear. Pressing the B button at this point will return the schedule to the screen, then you can call up the reset command to clear the memory.

* If autoskip method has been assigned, it can not be cleared by a standard reset. You must use the main reset on the NES™ unit.

4. GAME START

It's time to start the action!

When you have finished checking all of the data and making your team settings, select your Team Control mode.

NOTE: When you are getting ready to play a regular season game by yourself, be sure to start the game after checking the schedule and the Team Control mode, because the schedule may be set to a two player game of MAN vs MAN or COA vs COA, in which case you won't be able to play a one player game.

Before the game begins, the referee performs the coin toss to determine which team has the right to choose the first kick-off. The team that wins the coin toss can choose to either make the first half kick-off or return it.

To skip the coin toss screen – press the Ⓜ button.

Ⓜ Kick-off

• To kick off – press either the Ⓜ button.

A kick-off meter will be displayed at the top of the screen. This meter will grow longer and then restart. The longer the meter is the farther the kick will go. Watch the meter carefully and kick the ball by pressing the Ⓜ button when the meter is at its longest point.

• To make an onside kick – kick the ball when the meter is in the blue.

You can control the player carrying the ball when the kick is being returned or when the ball has been recovered by the kicking team on an onside kick.

Ⓜ Controlling the offense

* To look at the data for the player that you have selected – press the start button.

* When you move the “▶” mark within the “players” column, the position of the player being chosen will flash on and off.

2. Making player substitutions

Choose the player that you want to replace, press the Ⓐ button and the “▶” mark will appear. Move this marker to the name of the player that you want to put in the game and press the Ⓐ button again. The substitution will then be made.

* There are certain limitations on substitutions due to the positions of the players.

Position	Players who can enter the game as a substitute
QB	▶ QB only
RB, WR, TE, KR, PR	▶ RB, WR, TE, KR, PR

* Changing returners

Returners can be changed without making substitutions by having a player already on the field change his position. (There is a high probability that the Returner will be injured.)

* When a player has to leave the game due to an injury. Once a player has been injured, the game cannot be continued until a substitution is made for the injured player.

“If your player gets injured, he won't be able to play in the game.”

5. The Road to the Super Bowl

The road to Super Bowl is long and rigorous. Without outstanding technique and play strategy the Super Bowl is an unattainable goal. Keep polishing your skills and use your best play strategy to achieve victory.

TECHNIQUE SECTION

★ Running Plays

□ Avoiding a diving tackle

When the COM is about to make a diving tackle the defensive player will get ready to dive and then he will attempt to tackle your player. To avoid being tackled get out of the way just as he is getting ready to dive.

* If the defensive player gets ready to dive, _____ get out of the way.

□ Make the most of your running back's talents

Some running backs like to use their strength to bowl over the defense and plow straight ahead while others like to use special techniques and speed to avoid tackles. When you are controlling a powerful runner (a runner with great hitting power), have confidence in his strength and run him straight at the defense.

When you are controlling a skillful running back (a runner with running speed and rushing ability), head upfield by eluding the defense's tackle attempts.

★ Pass plays

□ Look for an open receiver

Don't throw a pass to a receiver who is well covered by the defense or the pass may be knocked down or intercepted. Look for an open receiver and then pass the ball to him.

□ The success of your passes depends on the ability of your quarterback and receivers

The greater the ability of your quarterback and receivers the easier it will be for you to complete passes. With talented players it is possible to make passes even when your players are covered. However, if your receiver is not talented, he might drop the ball even though he's wide open. Likewise, if your quarterback isn't talented, he might throw the ball so badly that your receiver can't catch it.

□ Use your ace receiver when it really counts

If you have an ace receiver on your team who is extremely talented, try throwing the ball to him in situations where it really counts.

★ Defense

□ Intercepting the other team's passes

Move your defenders into the area that the offensive team's pass is heading. Then, if your defenders are talented enough, they might be able to make an interception.

STRATEGY SECTION

□ Make the most of your team's talents

There are many different types of teams — good passing teams, good running teams, strong defensive teams, etc. Find out what your team's strengths are and then make your play choices based on those strengths.

□ Take away your opponents strong points

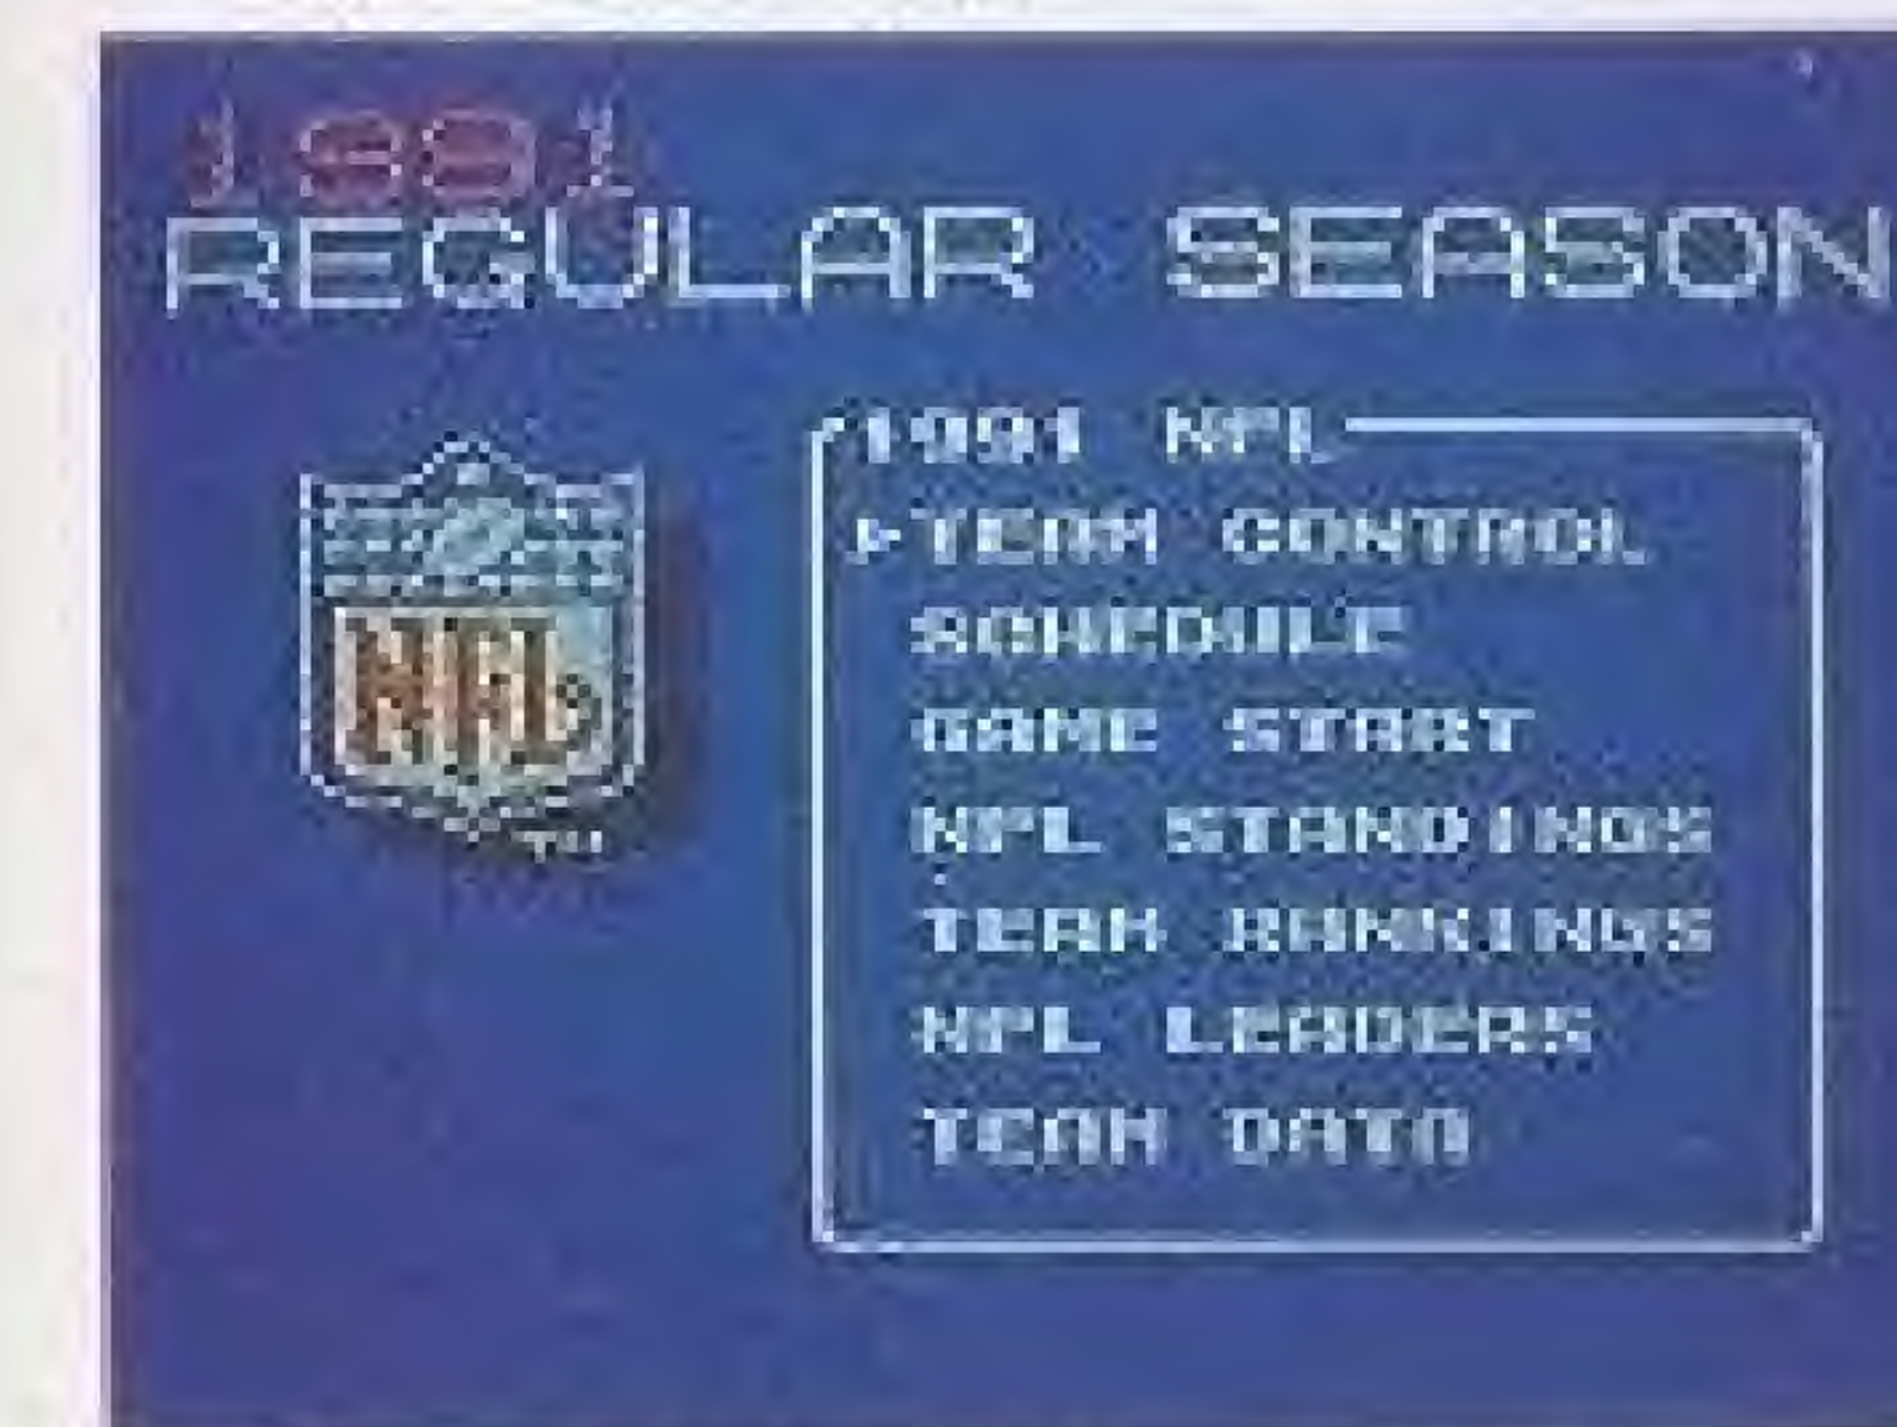

Study your opponent to discover his strengths and weaknesses. During the game concentrate on shutting down your opponent's favorite plays and upsetting his game plan.

AUTO SKIP SECTION

□ SEASON GAMES

For Season Games, the computer can automatically skip thru the various display screens for those games which are set to SKP-vs-SKP in the Team Control screen.

◆ Options Window

Pressing the START BUTTON and the Ⓜ button simultaneously.

Select "GAME START" from the options window. By pressing the START BUTTON and the Ⓜ button simultaneously, the display screens of SKP-vs-SKP games will sequence automatically. (Otherwise the Ⓜ button must be pressed repeatedly.)

You may cancel this choice by pressing the Ⓜ button continuously during the "Tecmo Sports News". When the game pauses, press the Ⓜ button once again to return to the Option Window.

6. TEAM INTRODUCTION

AFC EAST

BUFFALO BILLS

BILLS

The Bills' no-huddle offense forces opposing defenses to keep the same personnel on the field and allows their quarterback to take advantage of breakdowns in pass coverage. Running Back Thurman Thomas is a dangerous open-field runner and an excellent receiver out of the backfield. Defensive End Bruce Smith is a dominating presence who directly affects opposing offensive game plans.

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS

COLTS

The Colts are using the two-back set more often to better utilize the running and receiving skills of Albert Bentley. Wide receiver Clarence Verdin is a dangerous kick returner. Quarterback Jeff George has proved to be worth the major trade the team made in order to draft him. Linebackers Jeff Herrod, Duane Bickett, and Chip Banks are the nucleus of an up-and-coming defensive unit that loves to blitz the quarterback. Punter Rohn Stark is one of the best in the league.

MIAMI DOLPHINS

Dolphins

With the emergence of running back Sammie Smith and fullback Tony Paige, the Dolphins have a more balanced offensive attack. Dan Marino still has the quickest release in the league and top receivers Mark Clayton and Mark Duper and tight end Ferrell Edmunds. Defensive end Jeff Cross and linebacker John Offerdahl are the leaders of the "Miami Pound Machine" defense.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS

PATRIOTS

Wide receivers Irving Fryar and Greg McMurtry are a pair of gamebreakers. Bruising running back John Stephens and tight end Mary Cook are the featured players in the Patriots' ball-control offense. Defensive ends Ray Agnew and Brent Williams are the bookends of a solid defense that includes linebackers Ed Reynolds, Andre Tippett, and Chris Singleton.

NEW YORK JETS

JETS

The developing Blair Thomas and rejuvenated Freeman McNeil propel the Jets' offense. Wide receiver Rob Moore takes some of the receiving burden off Al Toon and gives quarterback Ken O'Brien another deep threat. Defensive backs Erik McMillan and Tony Stargell make quarterbacks pay for throwing the football.

AFC CENTRAL

BROWNS CLEVELAND BROWNS

BROWNS

When the Browns want to run over defenders, they pair Kevin Mack and Leroy Hoard in the backfield. When they want to run around defenders, they give the ball to speedy scatback Eric Metcalf. Wide receivers Webster Slaughter and Reggie Langhorne are aggressive receivers who will go into the interior of the defense to make a reception. Linebackers Clay Matthews and Mike Johnson are good at stopping both the run and the pass. Cornerback Frank Minnifield is almost unbeatable in one-on-one coverage.

BENGALS CINCINNATI BENGALS

BENGALS

Buffalo may receive more attention for its no-huddle offense, but the Bengals are the innovators of the explosive scheme. Quarterback Boomer Esiason has an impressive arsenal of weapons in running backs James Brooks and Ickey Woods and receivers Eddie Brown and Tim McGee. Tight end Rodney Holman is the team's possession receiver. Defensively, safety David Fulcher and outside linebacker James Francis are a pair of heavy hitters who make receivers hear footsteps and ball carriers run scared.

HOUSTON OILERS

OILERS

With quarterback, Warren Moon at the trigger, the Oilers' Run-and-Shoot offense will gun down any defense in the NFL. Receivers Haywood Jeffires, Ernest Givins, Drew Hill, and Curtis Duncan are the most dangerous receiving quartet in the league. The Oilers' 4-3 defense is well suited for the pass-rushing skills of defensive tackle Ray Childress. Linebackers Al Smith and Johnny Meads excel at stuffing the run, while strong safety Bubba McDowell leads Houston's "Air Patrol" secondary.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS

Steelers

The Steelers have a lot of confidence in their gutsy, strong-armed quarterback, Bobby Brister. Versatile Merrill Hoge, who plays both running back positions, is a dangerous receiver out of the backfield. At 6-5, 274 pounds tight end Eric Green is the largest deep threat in the league. Linebackers David Little and Bryan Hinkle are the catalyst of a young defense that grudgingly gives up yards.

AFC WEST

DENVER BRONCOS

BRONCOS

John Elway's cannon arm and nimble feet make him very difficult to defend. Bobby Humphrey's slippery moves make it difficult for defenders to get a clean hit on him. Receivers Vance Johnson, Mark Jackson, and Ricky Nattiel may lack size, but they make clutch receptions. Safety Steve Atwater sets the tone for Broncos' defense with his hard hitting. Linebacker Karl Mecklenburg is difficult to defend regardless of where he lines up. Cornerback Tyrone Braxton is the secondary's best cover man.

KANSAS CITY CHIEFS

CHIEFS

Quarterback Steve DeBerg is one of the toughest competitors in the league. Running backs Christian Okoye and Barry Word are a pair of bruising runners who are hard to bring down. Stephone Paige is a reliable possession receiver, while Robb Thomas is an elusive deep threat. Linebackers Derrick Thomas and Percy Snow wreak havoc on opposing ball carriers and quarterbacks. Cornerbacks Albert Lewis and Kevin Ross and safeties Kevin Porter and Deron Cherry make up one of the best secondaries in the league.

LOS ANGELES RAIDERS

RAIDERS

Regardless of who's playing quarterback, the Raiders' offense will move the football. The running and receiving skills of Bo Jackson, Marcus Allen, and Steve Smith keep opposing defenses off balance. Wide receivers Willie Gault and Mervyn Fernandez possess size, speed, and good hands. Greg Townsend, Howie Long, Bob Golic, and Scott Davis compose one of the most formidable defensive lines in the NFL. Unsung cornerback Terry McDaniel will make quarterbacks regret trying to throw at him.

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS

CHARGERS

Quarterback Billy Joe Tolliver is a good medium-to-short-range passer. Marion Butts is the swiftest 250-pound running back in the league. The Chargers would like to pair him in the backfield with Rod Bernstein or Ronnie Harmon. Speedy receiver Anthony Miller consistently beats double coverage. Burt Grossman, Leslie O'Neal, and Lee Williams do a fine job of pressuring the quarterback. Linebacker Junior Seau has good speed and can both blitz and drop into pass coverage.

SEATTLE SEAHAWKS

Seahawks

The running of John L. Williams and Derrick Fenner propels the Seahawks' "Ground Chuck" offense. Quarterback Dave Krieg is a high percentage passer who does a fine job of finding receivers Brian Blades and Tommy Kane. Defensive linemen Cortez Kennedy, Tony Woods, Jacob Green, and Joe Nash are excellent against the run and the pass. Linebackers Rufus Porter and Dave Wyman make good reads and always find the ball. Strong safety Nesby Glasgow is a smart, hustling player who wants in on every play.

NFC EAST

DALLAS COWBOYS

COWBOYS

Quarterback Troy Aikman and running back Emmitt Smith are cornerstones of an explosive young offense. Michael Irvin is the deep threat, while Kelvin Martin is the possession receiver. Tight end Jay Novacek is one of the best pass-catching tight ends in the league. Defensive ends Danny Stubbs and Tony Tolbert and defensive tackle Jimmie Jones are excellent pass rushers who do a solid job of caving in the pocket. Linebackers Jack Del Rio and Ken Norton are big hitters who make plays.

GIANTS NEW YORK GIANTS

GIANTS

The Giants wear down opposing defenses with their run-oriented, ball-control offense. Ottis Anderson and Rodney Hampton are explosive ball carriers and scatback Dave Meggett is a dangerous receiver out of the backfield. Whenever Phil Simms is looking to pass, he can go to tight end Mark Bavaro in the flat, or throw deep to receivers Mark Ingram and Stephen (Touchdown Maker) Baker. The Giants have arguably the best linebackers in the league in Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Pepper Johnson, and Gary Reasons.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES

EAGLES

Versatile running back Keith Byars is an excellent receiver out of the backfield. The blocking and receiving skills of Keith Jackson make him the prototype NFL tight end. Neutralizing the Eagles' defensive line is not an easy task. Double-teaming Reggie White and Jerome Brown only will free up defensive end Clyde Simmons and give him a clear path to the quarterback. Outside linebacker Seth Joyner covers a lot of ground and has a nose for the football. Cornerbacks Ben Smith and Eric Allen allow very few passes to be completed in the secondary.

PHOENIX CARDINALS

CARDINALS

Opposing defenses should be aware of quarterback Timm Rosenbach's mobility. He throws just as well on the run as he does in the pocket. Running backs Johnny Johnson and Anthony Thompson make up one of the finest young backfields in the league. Ricky Proehl and Roy Green are a pair of sure-handed receivers with deceptive speed. Defensively, Ken Harvey and Freddie Joe Nunn excel as pass rushers, while linebackers Eric Hill and Anthony Bell do a solid job of stuffing the run. Strong safety Tim McDonald hits like a linebacker and covers receivers like a cornerback.

WASHINGTON REDSKINS

REDSKINS

Quarterback Mark Rypien has done an outstanding job mastering coach Joe Gibbs's intricate offense. Whenever Rypien gets into trouble, he can count on his posse-wide receivers, Gary Clark, Art Monk, and Ricky Sanders to come up with a clutch reception. Gerald Riggs and Earnest Byner are a pair of thick-thighed runners who'll trample over any defender in their path. The hustling pursuit of veteran defensive end Charles Mann and linebacker Andre Collins makes it difficult to gain yards against the Redskins' defense.

NFC CENTRAL

CHICAGO BEARS

BEARS

Jim Harbaugh is one of the most accurate passers in the NFL. The running and receiving skills of running back Neal Anderson keep the defense off balance. Both Wendell Davis and Ron Morris have the speed to get open deep, and the toughness to make a catch over the middle. Linebacker Mike Singletary is the heart of the Bears' defense. Defensive end Richard Dent continues to be one of the league's premier pass rushers. Few defensive backs close on the ball and have a knack for interceptions like Bears strong safety Mark Carrier.

DETROIT LIONS

LIONS

The running and passing of quarterback Rodney Peete ignite the Detroit offense. No other NFL running back possesses the speed, balance, and acceleration of the Lions' Barry Sanders. Wide receiver Robert Clark will catch anything he gets his hands on. Nose tackle Jerry Ball does a good job of tying up blockers and allowing linebackers Chris Spielman, Michael Cofer, and Dennis Gibson to make tackles. Strong safety William White is an alert player who never allows a receiver to get behind him.

GREEN BAY PACKERS

PACKERS

The Packers believe in the magic of quarterback Don Majkowski. The confident passer does an excellent job of locating receivers Sterling Sharpe and Perry Kemp downfield. Fullback Darrell Thompson is a tough inside runner. Tight end Ed West is a valuable possession receiver. Fiery linebacker Tim Harris talks a good game, and plays an even better one. Linebackers Brian Noble and Johnny Holland are solid against the run and the pass. Strong safety Mark Murphy plays smart and makes things happen.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS

VIKINGS

The more the Vikings utilize Herschel Walker as a runner and receiver, the more success they'll have moving the football. Quarterback Wade Wilson is a poised leader who will not panic in the pocket. The Vikings have two of the most dangerous receivers in the league in Anthony Carter and Hassan Jones. Defensive ends Chris Doleman and Al Noga are quick off the ball. Strong safety Joey Browner is a big-play maker who makes key hits and interceptions.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS

BUCCANEERS

The Buccaneers are a youthful team full of potential. Quarterback Vinny Testaverde times his throws well and has good anticipation of receivers Bruce Hill and Mark Carrier. Gary Anderson is an elusive runner who squirts through holes and bounces off tacklers. Linebackers Kevin Murphy and Eugene Marve lead an aggressive defense. Quarterbacks should be aware of ballhawking cornerback Wayne Haddix.

NFC WEST

ATLANTA FALCONS

FALCONS

The Falcons' "Red Gun" Offense can shoot holes through any defense in the NFL. The running of Mike Rozier and Steve Broussard complements the long-ball passing of quarterback Chris Miller. Sticky-fingered receiver Andre Rison is Miller's favorite target. Linebackers Jessie Tuggle, Michael Reid, and Darion Conner lead Atlanta's "Grits Blitz" defense. Free safety Scott Case gives excellent support against the run. Cornerback Deion (Prime Time) Sanders is one of the fastest players in the league.

RAMS LOS ANGELES RAMS

RAMS

Quarterback Jim Everett leads a potent offense that can score from anywhere on the football field. Speedy receivers Henry Ellard and Willie Anderson have to be double-covered. Running back Cleveland Gary is a multi-purpose workhorse who likes to touch the football 20-25 times per game. Linebacker Kevin Greene is one of the best pass rushers in the league. Versatile Jerry Gray is the prototype NFL defensive back.

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

SAINTS

Few teams run the football like the Saints. Running backs Dalton Hilliard and Rueben Mayes and burly fullback Craig Heyward are hard-nosed ball carriers keep the first down markers moving. Wide receiver Eric Martin is the deep threat and the possession receiver. The Saints' linebackers are the strength of their defense. Outside linebackers Pat Swilling and Rickey Jackson excel as pass rushers and inside linebackers Sam Mills and Vaughan Johnson are solid against the run and in pass coverage.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS

49ERS

The 49ers are hard to stop because they have so many weapons. Joe Montana is arguably the finest quarterback ever to play, and when he's not passing to receivers Jerry Rice and John Taylor, he's handing off to running backs Roger Craig and Tom Rathman. Charles Haley is a fearsome pass rusher who will line up at defensive end or linebacker. The tenacious hitting of free safety Ronnie Lott inspires the 49ers' entire defense.
